INTRODUCTION

Atlona AT-DVI15SRS extends your PC DVI transmission distance up to 30m/100ft . With AT-DVI15SRS, users can transmit high quality digital video of PC applications through one cost effective CAT-5/5e to the remote monitor or projector, instead of using short and expensive DVI cables. With embedded EDID inside the extender, your PC will continue to send the digital video even when the monitor is not connected. The user can then disconnects the monitor, place it in a remote location and reconnect it without rebooting the operating system.

Atlona AT-DVI15SRS includes two identical units: transmitting and receiving units. The transmitting unit is connected to your PC DVI output and the receiving unit is connected to the monitor. While successfully connected, the two LED lights on RJ-45 connector will blink. The transmission distance between the sending and receiving units can be up to 30m/100ft at XGA (1024x768 @60Hz) or 15m/50ft at WUXGA (1920x1200@60Hz). With compact size and requiring no power, AT-DVI15SRS is the most cost effective choice for bringing your impressive digital video to the remote display.

2. To reduce the interference among the unshielded twisted pairs of wires in CAT-5/5e/6 cable, you can use shielded CAT-5/5e/6 cables to improve EMI problems, which is worsen in the long transmission.
3. Because the quality of the CAT-5/5e/6 cables has the major effects in how long transmission distance will be made and how good is the received display, the actual transmission length is subject to your CAT-5/5e/6 cables. For resolution greater than 1280x1024, a CAT-6 cable is recommended.
